

Privacy policy for the use of our website

The protection of your data is our highest priority. Due to this we would like to inform you in accordance with the German Telemedia Act (TMG), the latest version of the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG new) and the EU Data Protection Regulation (EU-GDPR) about the purpose, nature and extent to which personal data are processed while visiting and using our website.

Data collection when using this website

In order to minimize the extent to which personal data are collected and processed as much as possible, we refrain in accordance with the EU GDPR largely from collecting and storing personal data and completely from the use of cookies and external analysis tools such as Google Analytics. Hence, you can visit our website without providing any personal information. However, for operational reasons and safety-related analyses to avoid and evaluate any system errors and/or "cyberattacks" on our website, so-called "server logs" are, according to the legal basis for data processing in the EU GDPR, automatically stored in our system for a week. They include your IP address, the address of the referrer as well as the date and time of access. In addition to that, the browser type and -version, the names of requested web pages/files and the amount of sent data are transmitted. This information is not used for any other purpose and is completely deleted after 90 days. In addition, backups of all logs are stored up to 3 months.

TLS encryption

This site offers for security reasons TLS encryption (Transport Layer Security). An encrypted connection is indicated by the browser's address bar beginning with https:// and the lock icon in the browser bar.

Changes to the privacy policy

We reserve the right to amend this privacy policy. The current privacy policy version for the use of our website is always accessible on our homepage.
